

A CHARMING YOUNG MOTHER SAYS:

Mrs. E. W. Brooks.

Weak, Exhausted, Peruna Gave a New Life.
Mrs. E. W. Brooks, 5415 S. Steele St., South Tacoma, Wash., writes: "I want to recommend Peruna to mothers. When my little girl came, I felt very weak and exhausted, and it seemed that I could not regain my strength."

My mother bought me a bottle of Peruna, after I had tried several other much advertised remedies without relief. I had little faith, as I was very weak, but within a week after I had commenced taking Peruna I was like a different woman.

"New life and vitality seemed to come each day until in a few weeks I was in fine health and a happy woman. Thanks to your splendid medicine, I have enjoyed good health for several years. I always keep Peruna on hand, as a few doses will set me right when I am feeling badly."

Catarrh of Ears

Mrs. G. W. Heard, Hempstead, Texas, writes in regard to her son Carl: "My son's ears had been affected since he was a baby. He seemed to have ringing in his head. He would be very fretful for several days, then his ears would run profusely what appeared to be corruption. The last year I thought he had almost lost his hearing and had a local physician treating him for about six weeks. He pronounced him well and for a few weeks he was not troubled, but since that time the ringing has been almost constant and very offensive. Finally I began giving him Peruna and Lacupia, and after he had taken two bottles of the Lacupia he was entirely cured. "I cannot praise Lacupia and Peruna enough."

SCARES HERSELF INTO RABIES

Doctors of New York Hospital Closely Watching a Remarkable Case.

The doctors at Bellevue hospital, New York, are watching with interest what is thought to be a case of pseudo hydrophobia. At the time of the rabies scare last summer there was a good deal of discussion among doctors concerning the genuineness of such cases. It was stated by many authorities that probably most of them were spurious. The case now under observation in Bellevue, the doctors say, bears all the earmarks of being genuine. It has been under observation for nearly a week. The patient is a girl 19 years old. While her convulsions are the indirect result of a bite, the woman who bit her for she was bitten by a woman—had never been bitten herself, so far as can be learned.

The girl is Dora Klappin of 221 East One Hundred and First street. July 5 last her aunt, Mrs. Sophia Thaler, became ill at her home and the girl helped nurse her. The illness developed into insanity, but at first Mrs. Thaler was not violent and the girl continued to attend her. One day while bending over the patient's bed to give her a glass of water, the desire for which precludes the idea of hydrophobia in the aunt, the doctors say, the girl was bitten on the left cheek. The bite was a slight affair. Miss Klappin paid no attention to it and went on about her duties. On this same day Mrs. Thaler's 11-year-old son Max brought into the house a dog, but because the neighbors disliked it and because of Mrs. Thaler's condition the dog was soon sent away. This was all before Mrs. Thaler's insanity developed. Finally her condition grew so bad that she was removed to Bellevue hospital and then transferred to the asylum at Central Islip, L. I., where she died on July 14.

Dora Klappin went on about her duties and was apparently in the best of health and spirits. Not long ago, however, someone told her that her aunt really had been bitten by a dog and had died of hydrophobia and that Dora, having in turn been bitten by her aunt, might suffer from it, too. The girl is said to have taken the remark to heart and to have bought several books and read much on the subject of rabies. She became sullen and grew thin and listless worrying over the matter.

On Saturday, October 17, she suddenly fell in a faint on the floor at her home and when a doctor was called he found her in convulsions. She was removed to Bellevue, and after watching the case there the physicians discovered all the symptoms of hydrophobia.

Whether or not the girl can recover the doctors are unable to say, but they seem convinced that they have on their hands a case of a young girl who has simply transferred herself into her present condition—New York Sun.

DEMOCRATS ARE INSISTENT

PROPOSE TO AMEND THE LAW

Appointments to Be Vested in Governor Instead of Boards Controlled by Republican Officials-Elect.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

LINCOLN, Nov. 7.—(Special.)—While the election returns so far reported to the secretary of state by the various counties indicate that the republican state ticket with the exception of governor has been elected, there is little consolation in that for the appointees now holding office by virtue of a commission from a board.

The democratic legislature has a program, so it was learned today, which will turn all these offices over to the democrats. The legislature will be asked by the leaders of the winning party to place the appointing power in the hands of the governor in place of the boards of boards as is the case now in some instances.

Should the democrats be able to carry this program out the secretary of the State Board of Charities and Correction, Joel Piper, though now appointed by the governor, the land commissioner and the state superintendent, will lose his place even if the republican state ticket wins out. Two county treasurer examiners are now appointed by the state auditor. Should the democratic program of abolishing appointments will go to Mr. Shallenberger.

The republican secretary of the state banking board and the republican state bank examiners will also go the same way. They are now selected by the attorney general, the auditor and the state treasurer. Under the proposed program they will give way to democrats.

The state banking board may be abolished entirely when the democrats pass their new law to force a levy upon the banks to make up a fund to guarantee deposits. "There will not be a republican left if he can be knocked out of office by legislative enactment," said a democratic leader this morning. "The legislature will simply pass a law changing the power of appointing to the governor or to boards which the democrats control. We have too many democrats yelling for jobs, to let any republican stay in if we can put him out. I am satisfied the clerk of the Board of Charities and Correction, the bank examiners and the county treasurer examiners will have to go. The legislature will attend to that the first thing."

Incidentally while W. S. Shoemaker of Omaha and Representative Pool of Johnson county are fighting for speaker of the house the grand old Roman of them all has let it be known that he wants to be chief clerk of the house, the very Hon. Tremore Cone of Saunders county. Mr. Cone was defeated for his second election in his home county and owing to his experience as a legislator his friends have proposed him for chief clerk.

Then on the heels of that comes the report that Henry Richmond should be given this place. Richmond went to Chicago and worked like a mad man to elect Bryan and keep Urey Woodson from getting his place in too deep in the affairs of the committee and now his friends hope his reward will be the chief clerkship. So up to date two very much earnest men are after this plum.

Tools for Officeholders.
Around the State House there is being garnered a lot of agricultural implements, sent in to those who it was thought might have to work. The morning Mr. Bishop received two husking pegs and Walker Smith in the office of the secretary of state received a pair of good warm husking gloves. Martin Dimery has received his second husking peg.

Estimates of Expenses.
Thirty departments of the state and state institutions have made their estimates of appropriations needed for the coming biennium. These estimates have been filed with the state auditor and will be reported to the state legislature for action. Those reporting show an increase over the appropriation of two years ago from $2,000,000 to $2,700,000 or almost $700,000. This increase is due to a large extent to the need or desire of new buildings.

One new building is asked for at the Nebraska School for the Deaf at Omaha, to cost $50,000 and to include an auditorium, library, museum, domestic science room and dormitory.

The Soldiers' home at Grand Island wants an administration building to cost $15,000 and an addition to the brick hospital kitchen to cost $2,000.

The Home for the Friendless at Lincoln asks for a boys' cottage and school building to cost $25,000 and a $35,000 men's cottage is wanted at the Hospital for the Insane at Norfolk.

Two $5,000 items in the estimate of the Industrial School for Boys at Kearney provide for a new barn and equipment for the trade department.

Superintendent Osborn of the Institute for Feeble-minded Youth at Beatrice asks for a $100,000 cottage furnished and complete and a horse barn and a boiler house costing $5,000.

The Normal school at Kearney wants a new wing to the building costing $50,000 and a chapel and gymnasium with equipment costing $20,000.

The Hospital for the Insane at Lincoln wants a $50,000 building for men, a $5,000 ice and cold storage plant and $5,000 for repairing a reservoir and building a stand-pipe.

The insurance department estimates that it will have a deficiency of $2,000 by April 1, 1910.

Railroad Appeal Argued.

The appeal of the Northwestern from the decision of the Railway commission in the York case, wherein an order was issued for a transfer switch was argued in the federal court this morning. W. B. Rose, for the state, filed a demurrer and argued that the railroad company had no case in equity, and therefore the court had no jurisdiction.

LAST DAY OF THE TEACHERS

Reception in Afternoon and Lecture by Dr. Wheeler in Evening.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

LINCOLN, Nov. 7.—(Special.)—The last day of the State Teachers' association meeting was among the best of all the days. During the afternoon more than 2,500 teachers were the guests of Governor and Mrs. Sheldon at the executive session and spent two hours very enjoyably.

At night Benjamin I. Wheeler, president of the University of California, lectured at St. Paul's church to an audience that packed the building.

Dr. Wheeler spoke in favor of the national university as desired by President Taft and advocated by him more than 100 years ago. Notwithstanding the first president had made provision for founding this institution in his will the American people had done nothing further to carry out his desires. He opposed the university in politics and condemned the populists of Kansas for looting the university and denouncing the officials of Oklahoma for the way they have treated their university.

VALLEY MAN'S HORSE LOCATED

Brother of Man Killed Near Ogallala Is Pushing Case.

OGALLALA, Neb., Nov. 7.—(Special Telegram.)—Samm Mann, the brother of Volney Mann, who was murdered four weeks ago near here, has identified the gray mare which the Smiths, man and wife, suspected of the deed, traded to a farmer living six miles south of Ogallala. He says it was the property of his brother, who was killed. Other developments tend to implicate Mrs. Smith in the case. The farmer states that Mrs. Smith did the horse trading, although her husband was present.

Volney Mann had left his home at Raton, N. M., with the horses and was traveling by wagon through Nebraska, enroute to Laramie, Wyo., to visit his two brothers. Mrs. Smith is becoming nervous under the close questioning by Sheriff Beal and the brother.
